On October 10, 2018, the Office of Insurance and Safety Fire Commissioner in Georgia issued Directive 18-EX-2 requesting that insurers exercise leniency during the State of Emergency Declaration. This is now in effect until November 30, 2018 with regards to cancellation and nonrenewal, as well as premium payments that may be tardy due to the disruption of services resulting from the storm. If an affected insured does not make a required premium payment, please contact your Underwriter for guidance before processing a notice of cancellation for nonpayment of premium.

This applies to both admitted and non-admitted business.
