The California Department of Insurance has issued Bulletin 2025-06 regarding a mandatory moratorium on cancellations and nonrenewals in certain zip codes impacted by the Hughes fire.

The moratorium went into effect on January 27, 2025. It applies to policies for residential properties, which may not be cancelled or nonrenewed due to wildfire risk for one year in the following zip codes:

91354, 91355, 91381, 91383, 91384, 91390, 93040, 93222, 93225, 93243, 93532

If a cancellation or nonrenewal notice was issued, due to wildfire risk, on or after January 27, 2025, for any residential property policy in these zip codes, insurers must offer to rescind that notice. Insurers must also offer to reinstate or renew any policy in effect at the time of the January 27, 2025, emergency declaration.

This moratorium applies to both admitted and non-admitted business.
